International Yoga Day

Yoga is believed to find its roots in the Indian mythological era. It is said that it was Lord Shiva who gave birth to this art. Also known as Adi Yogi, Shiva is known to be the inspiration for all the yoga gurus around the world.

More commonly, it is believed that it was the Indus-Sarasvati civilization in the Northern India that initiated this brilliant art as many as 5,000 years ago. It is the Rig Veda that is said to have mentioned this term for the first time. However, the first systematic presentation of yoga is said to be done by Pantanjali in the classical period. Practicing yoga is one of the ways to grow into a better human being with a sharp mind, a good heart and a relaxed soul.

Independence Day

Independence Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm and patriotic fervor on 15th August in the college ground with the staff and students to mark the 70th year of freedom from the British rule. On this special occasion, the program started with flag hoisting by the Chief guest. The Principal addressed the gathering appealing to their nationalistic spirit and urging them to take pride in being an Indian and fulfilling one's duty with responsibility. He also emphasized the role of youth today as the true wealth of a country. Indeed, it was a day of joy, a day to love and respect our country and make it a better place for Indians to live and experience the freedom, peace and unity in diversity.

Joy of Giving Week

The Daan Utsav is formerly known as The Joy of Giving Week. The Joy of Giving Week (JOGW) is a festival of philanthropy that aims to become a part of the Indian ethos, with the week being celebrated every year, covering Gandhi Jayanti by engaging people through “act of giving” - money, time, resources and skills - spanning the corporate, NGO and government sectors, schools, colleges and the general public.

Team Zarurat celebrates Joy of Giving week every year. We try to give every joy to our children they are deprived off. We organize different events in this week which involves various activities like dance, self- defence etc. On the last day we distribute goodies to them supported by college students, faculties and our team. This event will always be special to us as this bring smile on the face of our children. Giving goodwill to the society is the greatest virtue.
